NOTICE - FAQ

Effective October 1, 2021, Kenneth E. West, Esquire, has been appointed as a chapter 13 standing trustee in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, replacing William C. Miller. This document is intended to explain the effect of this transition. Thank you for your patience.

1. Who is now the standing trustee in Philadelphia ?

Effective October 1, 2021, Kenneth E. West is the Standing Trustee, overseeing the Philadelphia office, and the cases in the EDPA assigned to Judges Coleman, Frank and Chan. Note that the Reading office, headed by Scott Waterman, also handles cases assigned to Judge Chan.

2. What about payments I have made to William C. Miller?

Truist/Suntrust Bank is the banking entity used by the Philadelphia office. It will continue to honor money orders and other guaranteed funds made payable to William C. Miller. If you make your payments through the TFS online payment method you may continue making them as before, they will still credit to your case. Regarding wage orders, we will try to work with the court to see if a general order can be issued to modify these without the necessity of multiple, individual motions.

3. Should I continue to make my payments to William C. Miller?

No. Going forward, please make payments payable to Kenneth E. West, Standing Trustee. The office lockbox remains the same – PO Box 1799, Memphis, TN 38101-1799.

4. How will Philadelphia office cases be reflected on the ECF court filing system?

Cases assigned to Judges Coleman, Frank, and Chan, which were and are assigned to the Philadelphia chapter 13 office, will show Kenneth E. West, as the new trustee.

5. How will this change affect court lists ?

There should be no change. Staff attorneys LeRoy W. Etheridge, LeeAne O. Huggins, and Jack K. Miller, will continue to conduct 341 meetings and court lists for Judges Coleman, Frank and Chan cases. Any questions about those lists should be referred to the Philadelphia office staff.

6. Whom should I contact regarding Philadelphia office matters ?

Contact information for the Philadelphia office remains the same. For general questions, David Nelson, Comptroller, can be reached at 215-627-1377, ext. 102.

7. What does it mean when I see William C. Miller's name on the website, stationary or other materials?

William C. Miller was the trustee for over 18 years. It will take a while until we find and replace his name in a number of places.

8. How will I be notified as these changes occur?

The website www.ph13trustee.com will continue operating. Any changes that occur going forward will be posted with directions on this site to keep you notified. Occasional email "blasts" to debtors' counsel may also occur when necessary.
