NOTICE OF SERVICES FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH LIMITED ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

Effective August 3, 2009, the Chapter 13 Trustee shall no longer permit the Debtor to provide translators, other than from an approved and qualified third party translator service.

Debtors with limited English proficiency may request, free of charge, the use of a telephone interpreter service for their 341 Meeting of Creditors. Telephone interpreter service is available through Language Services Associates (a/k/a Interpretalk) in 196 languages.

Debtors wishing to take advantage of this free service should advise their bankruptcy attorney upon receiving notice of their 341 hearing date. Debtor's Counsel, or Debtor, if pro se, must contact the Trustee's 341 Clerk at least 5 days in advance of the scheduled 341 Meeting to request the use of this service
